Examiners Amendment

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with David Rodack 47,034 on 12/11/06 to obviate any potential 101 issues.

The application has been amended as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

2. Please amend claim 59 as follows:

Claim 59 (Currently Amended)

At line 1, before " comprising ", insert including a processor configured to execute the compiler

Reasons for Allowance

1. Based on Applicant's comments as indicated in Applicants amendment/response of 07/25/2005 regarding Examiners Advisory Action of (11/12/04) which previously indicated that claims 59 – 63 are in condition for allowance, Examiner is hereby placing this application in condition for allowance. Claims 1 – 58, are being cancelled in the current amendment (07/25/2005) thereby by placing the remaining claims 59 – 63 in condition for allowance.

The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

The prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest at least:

A computer system comprising:

"...a compiler configured to compile blocks of code, to find unused bits in a NOP instructions in one of the blocks of code, and to encode information as a bit vector in the unused bits, wherein the information identifies whether certain registers in said one of the blocks of code are live; and a dynamic optimizer that is configured to optimize the compiled blocks of code, wherein a configuration of the optimized and compiled blocks of code is responsive to the information", as best illustrated by figures 8, and in such a manner as recited in independent claim 59 and as pointed out in Applicant's arguments/remarks of (7/25/2005) as well as page 3, of Advisory action (11/12/04).

Art Unit: 2192

Therefore, the remaining claims 59 – 63 are in condition for allowance.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
